A BRILLIANT FINISH IN THE AN-NUAL LAKEWOOD TOURNAMENT. Watson, Jr., Wins the First Cup From Hamil. on After Nineteen Holes Young Robbins

Captures the Handleap Graham Ahead at Westchester - Scores on Other Links. Two homebred golfers had the finish of the spring tournament of the Golf Club of Lakewood to themselves vesterday, and they played as good a game as the 'gallery gods' have seen this season, at least with Vardon scores; and the "best ball" barred. They were c. Biddle Craig M. Hamilton of Baltusrol, who M. began his career by winning the St. Andrews cup in the public competition at Van Cortlandt Park, which was managed by THE SUN in 1800, and R. C. Watson, Jr. of Westbrook, who played his first game in the same year over that course. The day was charming for golfing, for there was Percy S. Mallett was charming for going.

neither sun nor wind, and there was again an impressive and enthusiastic following. Watson won the match, but only on the pineteenth hole. Hamilton, as a set-off to his defeat, had the luck to win the M. Ward third, Scores:

Mortimer M. Singer was the winner of the trial handleap for the Raritan cup at the Laurence Harbor links yesterday in which a cozen of the club's members took part, tierrege Armstrong got second place and John M. Ward third, Scores: gross score prize in the bandleap and he also captured the runner's-up cup. The two M. M. Singer were often together in the Southern tournaments during the winter, where Watson got the better share of successes. Although he has won any number of cups in Florida during the past two winters, this is the first M. G. A. tournament Watson has won with the exception of the one at Knollwood last July. Now he has eyes on the amateur championship.

Watson has much the more orthodox style of the two, for Hamilton only takes a short, forearm swing, yet from eleven of the tees the latter had the better of the drives. But in most of these cases it was the roll on the ball that compelled Watson to play the odd on the second shot. The former, however, Atkinson had the better of the putting, and it had the better of the putting, and it Tompkins, was due to this that he had the lead to the W. F. Holmes puts to win both the fourth and fifth holes.

Barring this there was not a mistake by Hamilton until on the fair green for the minth. eleventh green. Yet Hamilton missed yard ton until on the fair green for the ninth hole, when he topped with the brassy and was bunkered. To the same hole Watson did not | 6 make a miss either, except chances lost in put-

A yard put that only rimmed gave the first A yard put that only rimmed gave the first hole to Hamilton. The second was haived, due to a fine approach by Hamilton from off the green when Watson had the least to do. The next was haived also, in 5, for while Hamilton was short on his brassey through sclaffing slightly Watson was weak on his approach put. The next two holes were halved through Hamilton missing yard puts. Playing the sixth, Hamilton outdrove Watson thirty yards, and, running down a put from the edge of the green, he won is to 5 and was 2 up. Watson had a 5 on the seventh hole, but Hamilton pulled his drive into the left on his second, and, as Watson had a 5 on the seventh hole, but Hamilton rimmed on his second, and, as Watson had bungled his approach putting, he gave up and lifted. Bunkered on the ninth, Hamilton took it, while Watson made a par 4, ending the eleventh felt to Watson, for Hamilton made a mess of his brassey shot and also the third, with an iron. Score 8 to 7, strokes that were reversed on the next hole, for Watson half rapped his drive into the tunker. Hamilton was again lup.

Both drove poorly from the thirteenth tee, hole to Hamilton. The second was haived, again 1 up. Both drave poorly from the thirteenth tea, but Watson played the better short game and evened the score by winning in 4 to 5. They halved the fourteenth in 6, both again driving weakly, but here Hamilton would have won only for would be tutting. Thereafter it was par golfing by both. Watson 3 to Hamilton 4, was the story on the two short holes that followed, making Watson dormie 2. par goifing by both. Watson 3 to Hamilton 4, was the story on the two short holes that followed, making Watson dormie 2. It was a case where Hamilton had to hustle. He nearly drove the 240 yard seventeenth green and won the hole in 3 to 4. Then, outdriving and playing the better short game on the home hole. Hamilton won it in 4 to 5. Watson failing on a two-vard put to halve. An extra hole was started. Watson had the better drive, for Hamilton sliced a long bull into a trap bunker, yet by a fine second the latter made the green. Watson was on with the like. After the approach puts the two balls were within a yard of the cup. Hamilton, after a protracted measurement, had to play the a protracted measurement, had to play the old. He only rimmed, while Watson putted out as cool as an iciele in 4 to 5, which settled the match. The cards:

CLOSE FINISHES AT PRINCETON Many Athletes From Other Colleges Compe In the Annual Games.

PRINCETON, April 21. - The eleventh annua andicap games of the Princeton Track Athletic Association, were held this afternoon at Osborn Field. Although not as successful as those of the last few years in the record breaking line, they were in many respects the most interesting ever seen here. Barring a slight wind which blew straight down the stretch behind the sprinters out which at times caught the distance menting the face, the weather was all that could be desired. Representatives were present from Yale, the Pennsylvania, Columbia, Cornell, Johns Hopkins and Haverford, besides a large number of con testants from the preparatory schools, making in all nearly two hundred participants. There was a big crowd of spectators present eager to get a line on the rival teams of the large universities of which Harvard was the only one not represented. The "rooters" were kept on the anxious seat over the result of almost every run and the field

Smart Field of Three Year Olds Wait Not Scores for the Second Time Over the Long Course -Big Money Winnings Go to Pleardy. The gathering at the Aqueduct racetrack yesterday rivalled that of the opening day in num bers and enthusiasm. As a speculative medium the first Saturday card presented tempting pos sibilites, while the genial spring weather was sufficient to guarantee a pleasant outing, win or lose. The ring presented an interesting study when viewed from a safe distance but only a good football player or a man carrying heavy life insurance could venture inside with confidence. It was a chaotic scramble between layers and backers throughout and the latter were lucky in putting three favorites over the plate. The magnet which drew most of the crowd was the Arverne Stakes and as the event represented the first local test among three-year-olds with stake aspirations, the keenest interest was i taken in the issue. Of the twelve candidates named overnight Kamara and Silver Garter dropped out but the gaps were promptly filled by All Gold and Lamp Globe. Modrine ruled a by All Gold and Lamp Globe. The Keene gelding closed very fast but Modrine stalled off his challenge and won out by a neck in fast time. with Unmasked. The Keene gelding closed very fast but Modrine stalled off his challenge and won out by a neck in fast time.

In addition to the stake feature there were two handicaps, the first being for three-year olds and upward, at one nule and seventy yards. The withdrawal of Box left charentus with top weight Watrenton, Bangor, Goldone and G. F. Wighlman were also scratched and Wait Not was at once installed favorite in the three-horse field. Charen tus got a shade the best of a good start but O Leary hald him hard and Tyrshena went off in front flying. O'Connor trailed with Wait Not the back stretch where he gradually crept up on terms with Charentus. Then he set sail for Tyrshena and made for home at a pace that the others could not hold. Wait Not won handsomely by two lengths in the fastest time of the meeting over the distance. O'Leary's ride on Charentus, who finished second, was severely criticised. The other handicap was at five furlongs and resulted in a popular victory for the Keene three-year-old, Doublet, beautifully handled by Spencer. He was played from 6 to 1 to 3 to Landcarried probably more money than the joint favorities. Mechanus and Olea. Old Leedsville, played from 50 to 1 to 20 to 1, made most of the running, but both Doublet and Mechanus nailed him in the run home and he lost the place by a head, while Cleawas straining at his withers. The Keenes also won the maiden two-vear-old event with another sen of Domino, The Regent, who galloped over the four and a half furlong course in the fastest time of the meeting. Flax Spinner won the first race of the day after an exciting neck finish with the favorite, Shoreham, but the concluding event brought consolation to C. F. Dwyer and his followers, as Pleardy, backed from twenties to tens, won out by a head from the 6 to 5 favorite, Merchanisman with the start of the day after an exciting neck finish with the favorite, Shoreham, but the concluding event brought consolation to C. Thirty-eight Miles in an Hour on Motor Tricycle.

PHILADELPHIA, April 21.-The Wridgeway. Skinner race, the first ever run on motor trieveles in this country, took place at Woodside Park this afternoon. It was a good thing for the contestants that they distinctly understood they were to race exclusively for the $150 a side they had wagered, for the attendance was limited to a few interested racing men. such as Bobby Thompson, Fred Sims and Archie McEachern, Fred Voigt of the Vailsburg track, who had the management of the race track, who had the management of the race, and the N. C. A. local officials. Kenneth Skinner, the Boston man, won the toss for the pole and got away in line shape, but before the first lap had been rounded the English visitor. Wridgeway, threw up his hands. His reservoir had run over with ou and when this was rectified a new start was made. Skinner once more led off, but Wridgeway passed him and finished the first mile to I minute 12.5 second. the first mile in 1 minute, 1 3-5 seconds. Wridgeway kept ahead till near the finish of the second mile, when Skinner stole past him and reached the second mile pole in 3 minutes 63-5 seconds. It now seemed evident that Skinner was to be a winner. Lapafter lap he improved his lead until at the ninth mile he was one lapahead. His miles were covered in 14 minutes 55 seconds, and steadily he kept forging on until, during the twelfth mile, a nut came off his machine and he was compelled to leave the track. By the time he returned with a machine fixed up any how with wire, his antagenist had got three miles ahead. Skinner pluckly struggled on until the thirtieth mile, when he had to quit, Wridgeway completing thirty-eight miles and one lap in one hour.

REAL ESTATE NEWS. What those interested say is the largest building real estate operation ever undertaken was Rose, arranged vesterday between representatives of the Alliance Realty Company and of the George the Alliance Realty Company and of the George
A Fuller Company. It involves the improvement of the property cward by the Alliance Realty Company at Broad street and Exchange place.
35 and 33 Broad street and 44 to 58 Exchange
Steiner, Mary, to Ed W Cunplace. The Alliance Company was organized for the purpose of owning and improving real estate in New York. Among its principal stockholders are H. O. Havemeyer, William A. Reed. James Stillman, Frederick Southack & Co., Spencer Trask Company and the Aver interests of Boston. They have joined with the Puller Company to improve this property and will erect a twenty-story fireproof building, according to the plans of Clinton & Russell, architects. The George A. Fuller Company has purchased a half interest in the enterprise and has control of the entire operation during construction. The operation

The week closed with the announcement of a few miner sales in the real estate market. The number, however, was sufficiently large to show that the market is getting into a more satisfacory condition. No. 36 Maiden lane was the chief of the downtown sales announced and the buyer, who owns property on Liberty street that abuts his purchase, will probably improve the property another year and connect the buildings.

will represent about $7,500,000

Brokers were very much pleased with the conditions which prevailed last week. Both in the auction and in the private sales departments announcements were made of transactions of moderable magnitude and in number sufficient convince the most sceptical that the period of dulness is past. They had been so long looking for a change from the quiet which characterred the market that they were slow to believe that brighter prospects were at hand and they viewed the first intimations of altered conditions with doubt. But the transactions of the last two weeks have convinced nearly all that they will enjoy more prospenty than they have had in the past two or three months. Plans were filed with Building Commissioner

Brady yesterday by W. H. Boylan, architect, for a seven story flat to be bull: for Kate C. Brown. owner, on Seventy first street, just west of West End avenue, at a cost of $165,000.
